Min 48/21 County Councillor's Report

The Chairman introduced and welcomed Peter Guest, the newly elected County Councillor for the Roche/Bugle ward. After giving a brief personal introduction Cllr Guest paid tribute to the outstanding contribution his predecessor, Sally-Anne Saunders had given to the community for the past 4 years. He added how much he looked forward to working with the Parish Council and listed the various committees to which he had been assigned by Cornwall Council.

The Chairman then congratulated and welcomed back County Councillor M Luke as the representative of Penwithick ward. He also praised Sally- Anne Saunders for all she had done and the amicable manner in which the campaign had been fought. He added that he wished that the circumstances were different and they were not in direct opposition to each other during the election. He also stated the various committees that he had been allocated in the new administration. He informed Council on the proposed new waste recycling programme giving a description of the process and that the new vehicles are ready to commence.

On local Parish matters he reported that the rig was now in place and that drilling will soon commence at the Eden Geothermal Project. In an update on the new A30 link road the only delay now is sorting out the compulsory purchase orders on small pockets of land on the proposed route.

The Clearance of the Old Carclaze School site has now commenced.
